Too Many Documents. Too Many Decisions. Too Much Uncertainty.

Taxpayers often spend hours collecting financial information, understanding tax rules, and checking whether important deductions have been missed.

8+ document types

May be required across salary, investments, property, and other income.

Multiple tax sources

Form 16, AIS, TIS, capital gains statements, bank interest, and investment proofs.

High risk of missed savings

Eligible deductions can remain undiscovered when taxpayers file manually.

Upload Once. SmartFile Connects the Financial Dots.

SmartFile reads available tax documents, categorises financial information, and creates a unified tax profile for review.
